Minister Powell Refuses to Recognize the Provisional Gov. ernment.

A WHOLE FAMILY POISONED

GEN. REYES' MISSION.

Washington, Nov. 28.—The state department has advised by cable from Minister Beaupre, at Bogota, dated November 25, in which he states that considerable excitement still prevails at the Columbia capital; that there is much talk of raising an army but no troops have yet been enlisted and that there are rumors in the city of a revolution in the state of Canca, directed against the Marroquin government.

Rumors have reached the state department from another source that General Reyes' mission to Washington is primarily to try to array opposition senators against the ratification of the Vanilla-Hay canal treaty.

There also is talk of the formation of a combination of South American countries directed against the United States.

Respecting the coming of General Reyes to Washington it is said at the state department that much depends upon the nature of his credentials as to the reception he will have. It seems probable that if he is brought to the department by the Colombian charge, Dr. Herran, he will be accorded a respectful hearing. But it also pointed out that his activities must be confined to lawful channels as an alien and any attempt on his part to influence by direct representations any other than the executive branch of the United States government would scarcely be viewed with equanimity.

MINISTER POWELL.

San Domingo, Nov. 28.—United States Minister Powell has refused to acknowledge the provisional government and also denied its demand for the withdrawal of former Finance Minister Galvan, who, with Judge Gray of Delaware, had been appointed to arbitrate the Santo Domingo improvement company matter.

Minister Powell told the provisional government that the question of arbitrating the claims of the improvement company was now closed and could not be reopened; that the board of arbitration was now fully constituted according to the conditions of the protocol; that the board will convene and its members proceed to the consideration of the issues presented by both parties and that its decision will be final. He added that the United States government cannot and will not interfere in any manner with the composition of the arbitration board named by the government of President Wey Y Gil.

WHOLE FAMILY KILLED.

Tiffin, O., Nov. 28.—The family of Frank Miller, consisting of five persons—husband, wife and three children—living across the eastern border of this county, were exterminated through the fatal forgetfulness of the wife, who last night mixed a quantity of strychnine with corn meal for the purpose of poisoning rats which had greatly annoyed the family. The poisoned meal was mixed with other meal today and used in preparing breakfast.

Judge W. A. Berry went to Benton this morning on business.

And Poured Out Scalding Water and Steam.

Monie Bauer Damaged By Accident and One Man Killed.

OWNED BY CAPT. ED WOOLFOLK

The Monie Bauer, a small towboat owned and operated by Captain Ed Woolfolk, of the city, "collapsed a flue" yesterday afternoon near Bay City, twenty-four miles above Paducah on the Ohio river, and three men were injured. The accident happened about 5 o'clock in the afternoon and the news did not reach the city until late in the evening.

The Bauer was coming down from Caseyville with two barges of coal and from what meager reports were received, the engineer, Mr. William Schomse, had a leg badly injured and two other members of the crew, the names not being stated in the telegram, were also injured.

The flue collapsed and let the hot water and steam rush out towards the engine room and it is presumed something was forced against the engineer's leg by the powerful steam emerging from the boiler. Besides Captain Thomas Hawkins and the engineer, others on the boat were Messrs. Joe Riley, watchman; Lee Baker, deckhand; with one other white deck laborer and a negro fireman. Complete details of the accident were not received here and the only word that came at all was to Captain Henry A. Pether, who received a brief telephone message last night. Riley is supposed to have been badly if not fatally scalded.

Captain Ed Woolfolk this morning chartered the Mary Golden of Brookport, to go to the Bauer and tow her to the city where she will be repaired. The collapsing of a flue frequently occurs but is a dangerous accident if any one happens to come within range of the deadly stream of boiling water and steam which is forced out of the defective flue with great force.

The Golden is expected back tonight and will bring the injured members of the crew to the city for treatment.

The Monie Bauer was first the property of Capt. O. Bauer, of Golconda, who built her about two years ago at Golconda. One of the boilers was from the Circle, which sank several years ago up the Tennessee river.

Mr. E. E. Bell, the timber man, owned her once, and Mr. Ed. Woolfolk subsequently bought her. She got aground on Ingram's shoals, up Cumberland river several months ago, and was not floated off until a few days ago.

She is a forty-five ton craft, 73 feet long and 17 feet 5 inches wide and three feet deep.

Later—The Bauer was towed in this morning about 11 o'clock by the Uncle Sam and moored near the iron furnace. On her were the remains of Joe Riley, who was acting as fireman or watchman. He died about 8 o'clock last night.

The engineer proved to be not badly hurt, and his leg was not broken. He was not hurt bad enough to go to the marine hospital at Cairo, and walked to a drug store down town to have a dressing placed on his scalded hand.

Nothing is known of Riley. He was a tramp boy picked up here and put on the boat, and had little to say about himself. He was asleep in the fireman's bunk near the boiler when the accident occurred and he was deluged with steam and scalding water. He lived from about 5 until 8 o'clock.

The remains were taken to Kiffin's undertaking establishment, and will be prepared for burial.

The engineer states that he cannot account for the accident. He had only 130 pounds of steam, and plenty of water when suddenly the accident occurred.

The boat is not badly damaged, and will soon be ready to run again. This was her first trip since she was floated from a bar several days ago.

Business at the banks is very good, deposits are normal, and earnings are up to last year's good record.

In the wholesale lines the report is of increases all along the line from 10 to 15 per cent over last year.

Jobbers are busy and report good bookings of orders. Retail trade is brisk. The cold weather has given it an impetus and there is a good deal of holiday shopping going on.

FOR FALSE SWEARING

Frank Kelley, One of the Alleged Crooks, in More Trouble.

Boy He Swears Is His Son Repudiates the Thief and Says His Name Is Harris.

NEW WARRANT IS ISSUED

At least one of the crooks arrested here several days ago on a charge of shop lifting, and who are all believed to be professional thieves, will go to the penitentiary, from present indications. He gives the name of Frank Kelley, and when he and O'Brien and others were arrested claimed that a boy arrested with them, and who gave the name of Ed Kelley, was his son.

The elder man swore this morning when the case against him for complicity in the theft of some trousers from the Antman's was on trial, that the younger man was his son. Captain Henry Bailey and Officer Joe Woods took the boy aside and "sweated" him until he admitted that the man was not even a relation of his, and that they had not been together long.

The boy claims that his right name is Ed Harris and his home is Yorktown, Pa. He is now a hobo and met the other "cush" two months ago. He likely has not detailed completely to the police their doings since they have been together but he has told them enough for them to swear out a warrant against Frank Kelley, the pretended father, for false swearing, on which he will be tried next week and doubtless held over.

The police are now busy ransacking the detective magazines, of which they have many back numbers, for pictures that may prove to be those of some of the crowd, and have also looked over the pictures in their rogues gallery.

TO PRESENT UMBRELLA—Mr. Lawrence Anderson will present the umbrella offered to the young lady selling the most meal tickets for the Home of the Friendless meals at the exposition building tonight.

Mr. Fred Hisey is here from Memphis, visiting his father, Constable Hisey, and sister, Miss Hallie Hisey.

Local merchants, both wholesale and retail, are well satisfied with the year, and few complaints are heard from any source.

DRIVING ROD BROKE IN THE LOCAL COURTS

And Played Havoc in an Engine Cab.

Fireman Hodges of Paducah, May Lose a Leg As a Result of Accident.

OTHER RAILROAD NOTES

As a result of the breaking of a driving rod on engine No. 23, pulling an extra freight train in charge of Conductor George Atwood, Engineer Charles Carpenter and Fireman Hodges, of Paducah, brakeman Hons-ton Simms, colored, lies in a railroad hospital here with a badly broken ankle, and may lose his foot.

The engine was "doubling" on a hill at Scottsburg, a station just above Princeton, and was running light, when the driving rod broke. With each revolution of the wheels and the engine was going at a pretty good rate of speed, the broken driving rod would alternately strike the cab and then bury itself in the ground, raising the engine off the track. Engineer Carpenter shut off the steam and ran back in the rear of the cab to escape the flying rod and Simms, who was standing in the cab, rushed to the side and jumped off to make way for the members of the engine crew who, he thought, wanted to get off also. In alighting Simms struck on his right leg in such a way as to snap both bones in two just at the ankle, a very serious injury.

Engineer Carpenter and Fireman Hodges remained on the engine until it was stopped and had a narrow escape from injury. The side of the cab was torn away with the first sweep of the driver and narrowly missed the engineer who grasping the situation shut off his steam and applied the air and then ran out of reach of the flying rod.

The engine was taken to Princeton and will be brought to the shops today for repairs.

Mr. J. J. Holaman, of Louisville, an Illinois Central fireman, was brought to the city last night and placed in the hospital for treatment.

He jumped from a freight car yesterday near Louisville and severely wrenched and sprained his hips and back. He will be laid up for some time as a result of the accident. The injuries are not thought to be permanent.

Mr. O. W. Woodriddle, the well known Illinois Central patternmaker, has gone to Memphis on business connected with the railroad company. He has gone down to look over patterns sent to Memphis for castings.

Mr. W. A. May, assistant ticket agent in the local I. C. office, has resumed his duties after a several days' illness. His many friends will be pleased to learn that he has recovered.

HURT WHILE HUNTING

MR. CLARENCE MARTIN BADLY WRENCHES A LEG NEAR LA CENTRE.

Mr. Clarence Martin, manager of the Imperial Tobacco company's plant on North Fifth street, was painfully hurt Thursday while hunting near La Centre. He was climbing a fence when in some manner his left leg was twisted and the ligaments badly wrenched. He was brought to this city last evening and will probably be laid up several days from the injury.

Sensational Pistol Case Was Put off Until Tuesday.

Bob McCormick Case Left Open—Bond Case Not Set in Circuit Court.

R. ROWAN ABANDONS APPEAL.

POLICE COURT.

Judge Sanders tried the Bob McCormick robbery case this morning. It consumed most of the day and was left open until Monday. McCormick will probably be acquitted. There was one case on the docket which was postponed, which was rather sensational. B. M. Brown, a clerk at a Second street establishment, was charged with carrying concealed a pistol and with flourishing it at the New Richmond hotel. It seems, from information received by the police that Brown took a woman to the New Richmond hotel and registered her as his wife. He found that she afterwards took up with a drummer and caught the drummer in the room he and the woman occupied, and the drummer refused to leave. He complained to the hotel and in a subsequent row is alleged to have drawn a pistol and had the woman screaming and the boarders running for shelter until he was disarmed. The case was continued until Tuesday on account of the absence of witnesses. It is understood that both the woman and the drummer have left the city.

A breach of the peace case against Charles Kaylor was continued. John Chapman was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

The breach of the peace case against Laura Rogers, colored, was continued until next Saturday.

A breach of the peace case against Frank Green was dismissed.

A breach of the peace case against Frank Goheston was continued until next Saturday.

Jeff Tollis was fined $1 and costs for a plain drunk.

Frank Kelley was sentenced to three months in the lookup for an alleged complicity in the shop lifting case in which O'Brien, another of the men, was yesterday given three months for stealing a pair of pants.

A petty larceny case against Ed. Kelley, a boy charged with stealing an overcoat, was dismissed.

The date for the trial of the city bond ex parte case had not been set but will probably come up the next regular term of court.

Thompson & Wilson Co. have filed a suit against John Callaghan to secure the payment of an alleged balance on a judgment secured in the state of Louisiana amounting to $640.

Judgments were filed in the following cases: C. W. Vance, guardian, against Roy Vance and others; Harry A. Rice against the Paducah Peanut Co.

The case of the Paducah Coöperage company against the C., St. L. and N. O. railroad was docketed and an amended petition filed.

The attorneys for Robert Rowan, colored, who was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary for house-breaking at the last term of circuit court, today filed the transcript with the court and stated that he had abandoned appealing the case and Rowan will now go to the penitentiary to serve his term.

The most important case tried in circuit court today was that of the Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans Railway company against the Paducah Coöperage company in Mechanicsburg.

The Coöperage Co. was awarded $2,000 for its property but still asked for the injunction granted temporarily in order that the higher court act in an appeal. Judge Hubbard this morning extended the injunction until further orders of the court and an appeal was granted.

THEATRICAL WORLD.

Monday night: Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Tuesday night: Nat Wills in the musical comedy "A Son of Rest."

Thursday night: "Eben Holden."

Saturday matinee and night: Lewis Morrison in Faust.

Lewis Morrison himself appears for the last time here as Mephisto when his new "Faust" comes to this city. The splendor of his production justifies the allegation that it is the most costly and elaborate version of "Faust" ever presented in the world. Everything is new, and the new program it is claimed adds greatly to the entire effect.

Al. G. Field spends more money in salaries for his vocal choir than many pretensions minstrel managers on a whole company. From ocean to coast and from the lakes to the Gulf, the superiority of the Field singing choir is universally acknowledged. The names of Prosser, Blampain, Pearso, Atkinson, Bathrick, Minch, Mokenna and La Londe are good to conjure with to those who are familiar with what has been offered along their line on the minstrel stage.

Most every one has read Gen. Lew Wallace's fascinating story of "The Fair God" and is familiar with the characteristics of the noble race of Aztecs who ruled Mexico in the days before Cortes introduced Christianity and the horse.

Coming down several centuries later to the days of the hapless Maximilian, we find El Aguila (The Eagle), the last of the Montezumas, occupying the central position in "A Royal Slave," a drama depicting all the emotions of humanity, but in which virtue, love and poetry predominate and are triumphant to the end.

In the chaotic conditions existing after the execution of Maximilian flourished one El Captain, a noted hand and murderer; and on an incident in his career, is based the theme around which "A Royal Slave" is written. The company headed by the sterling romantic actor, Clarence Bennett, is probably one of the best that will be seen here this season, and our people should not do themselves the injustice of missing a production that comes heralded by the unstinted praise from the press of the entire west.

New York City theatregoers are said to be severely critical and extremely cynical. Managers of theatrical productions who have backed their judgment in costly enterprises dread a first night performance in the metropolis.

If this offering is accepted with favor its success is assured, if otherwise success in New York or elsewhere is doubtful—hence the man against anxiety. Messrs. Voelckel and Nolan, proprietors of the Black Patti Troubadours, determined upon some radical new features for this season's company and performers an big showmen of the old and new school daringly brought forth their company to the Star Theatre, New York City for the inaugural performance. The result, the first night and throughout the entire engagement, packed, jammed houses, seats selling at fabulous premiums and the police called to suppress the tumultuous applause. The entire metropolitan press voicing the merits of the company and performance implying that all the new features including "Darktown's Circus Day," (second edition); The Troubadours Comedy Fren; Bob Kelley, the Wills' well-known tramp made his entrance in a most ludicrous and unexpected manner till the close of the play, when the actor appears in neat conventional attire just long enough to allay any horrible suspicions that his tramp guise may be a permanent and natural condition, there was laughter and applause. Mr. Wills had an abundance of songs, parodies and jocular quips, which allowed no moment to lag while he was on the stage.

real comic in comic songs and monologues; Wm. Nichols, positively a great mimic; Ward and Dobbs, character specialty artists; soldiers camp glee and a festival of mirth and melody were the best acts of its kind ever seen on the New York stage.

The Washington D. C., Star of Nov. 3rd said:

At the Columbia Theatre last night, Nat M. Wills was welcomed with the enthusiasm due to a player who has "arrived." Mr. Wills has served a successful apprenticeship in vaudeville and popular price amusement and has fully demonstrated his capability to amuse an evening-clothes audience. It is difficult to point the distinction that separates the occasional entertaining face-comedy from the multitudinous flat and unprofitable ventures in that line that have of late been launched. Humor is a subtle thing, and, with no apparent reason, "A Son of Rest" asserts itself as a genuine laugh producer, while organizations with longer lists of star entertainers and greater pretensions prove ineffectual. Cleveland Says He Will Not be Nominee.

His Determination Is Conclusive—Democrats Must Continue Search.

New York, Nov. 28.—Grover Cleveland has sent the following letter to the editor of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle:

"Princeton, Nov. 25, 1900.—My Dear Mr. McKelway: I have waited for a long time to say something which I think should be said to you before others.

"You can never know how grateful I am for the manifestation of kindly feeling toward me on the part of my countrymen, which your initiative has brought out. Your advocacy in the Eagle of my nomination for the presidency came to me as a great surprise; and it has been accorded in such manner by Democratic sentiment that conflicting thoughts of gratitude and duty have caused me to hesitate as to the time and manner of a declaration on my part concerning the subject—if such a declaration should seem necessary or proper.

"In the midst of it all and in full view of every consideration presented, I have not for a moment been able, nor am I now able to open my mind to the thought that in any circumstances or upon any consideration I should ever again become the nominee of my party for the presidency.

"My determination not to do so is unalterable and conclusive.

"This you at least ought to know from me and I should be glad if the Eagle were made the medium of its conveyance to the public. Very sincerely yours, Grover Cleveland, "St. Clair McKelway, LLD., Brooklyn, N. Y."

THE MAN AND THE WEASEL.

Find Another Man.

A Man caught a Weasel, and was about to kill it. The little animal prayed earnestly for his life. "You will not be so unkind," said he to the Man, "as to slay a poor creature who kills your Mice for you?" "For me," answered the Man; "that's a good joke. For me, you say as if you did not catch them more for your pleasure than for my profit. And, in respect of eating and gnawing my victuals, you know that you do as much harm as the Mice themselves. You must make some better excuse than that before I feel inclined to spare you." Having said this, he strangled the Weasel without more ado.

THE BELLES.

(An allusion which undoubtedly would be disowned by Poe if he could help himself.)
Hear the chatter of the belles—
Lovely belles!
What a world of gossip each one knows and eager tells!
How they shout and scream and giggle Round the cozy urn of tea!
While the aples they oversprinkle All the scandal makes eyes twinkle With half-envious delight;
Each one smiling In a manner most beguiling While the reputation of a friend they blight
With a laugh! Oh, with ruthlessness that quells,
What a flood of luendo voluminously wells!
How it swells! How it dwells
On the absent! How it tells Of jealousy that impels
All this slighting and backbiting Of the belles, belles, belles,
Oh, the belles, belles, belles, belles, Belles, belles, belles—
Save us from the rancor and the clamor of the belles!

CHRISTMAS BAZAARS.

The past week in society has been unusually gay on account of Thanksgiving, and many charming functions have been given. The next few weeks, preceding the holidays, will doubtless be more quiet on account of Christmas preparations. Christmas bazaars will be the order of the day and society women will give themselves to selling fancy articles and showing their culinary skill in the interest of the church or benevolent institution in which they are most interested. The home of the Friendless ladies have just closed a successful week at the exposition, serving lunch and selling fancy articles. They will possibly clear about $200. The Catholic ladies will have a bazaar next week. They will be followed by the ladies of the Broadway Methodist church and the First Christian church ladies will come next. All of these fairs will be given in the Rieke building on Broadway.

D. A. B. ELECTION.

The Paducah Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. L. S. Du Bois, on Fountain avenue, in regular monthly session and hold its annual election of officers.

Since the regent does not serve longer than two terms and the present regent, Mrs. M. B. Nash closes her second term this year, a new regent will be chosen. It is likely that the vice regent, Mrs. H. S. Wells, will be given the honor. Mrs. Wells is one of the most enthusiastic faithful and cultured members of the chapter, and is in every way qualified for the position.

NOT CERTAIN

BUT REV. ARMSTRONG MAY NOT COME TO PADUCAH.

Since it is possible that Rev. W. W. Armstrong, who was assigned to the pastorate of the Trimble street Methodist church at the recent meeting of the Methodist conference at Fulton, Ky., will not be able to assume charge of this church on account of the illness of his wife at Dyer Station, his former appointment, making it impossible for her to be moved at this time, it is probable that Rev. Mr. Duckworth who is stationed near Dyer, will be sent here and Mr. Armstrong sent to his church. He would then be near enough to spend most of the time with his wife. The presiding elder of this district and of the one including Dyerstation are given the power by church regulations to make such an exchange.

Rev. Mr. Armstrong may be able to come here later, however, and no exchange will be effected until it is definitely determined what he can do. If Mrs. Armstrong's health improves, as it is thought it may, her husband will come to Paducah.

The Savannah will leave St. Louis Monday for Tennessee river, passing Wednesday morning.

REFORMING KENTUCKY.
Some of the papers of the state are inclined to resent the comments of eastern papers on Kentucky. This is doubtless natural, if not right. Self-preservation is the first law of nature it is said, and it is no more than natural for those people and papers who are responsible for conditions in Kentucky to rush to the defense. It remains very obvious, however, that if Kentucky wants to rank with some of the other states, there must be a change in the sentiment and the tendencies of some of the people. The Lexington Herald says along this line:
"Are the comments of some of the eastern journals on the recent charge that firemen looted the stores which were on fire during the recent conflagration in Louisville, and on the antor-nomic controversy between the State college and Kentucky university in relation to the match football game to be played here on Thanksgiving, malicious and without foundation ill-feeling and gratuitous, or have they some foundation? It is gravely stated that these events are not surprising, and are in consonance with much of the recent history of Kentucky. And then is published in detail the deplorable events which have marked the past few years—the reversal of the election of Governor Taylor, and the declaration of the election of Mr. Goebel; the calling out of the state guard by Governor Bradley to keep peace during the session of former legislature; the assassination of Senator Goebel; the enactment of the $100,000 reward bill;
the various trails of Powers and Howard; the treatment of Yontey in the penitentiary and his subsequent confession and testimony; the Breckinridge assassinations and reign of terror there; feuds in other counties, and other events that are humiliating; and the question is submitted: "Is it strange that in a state where such events are so frequent and so many of them approved, that firemen loot the property they are sworn to protect and standards of rival institutions have in confidence in the students, preachers and faculty of the opposite and conflicting institution?" Some of the common sense is bitter—all offensive they as unjust and illogical as they are offensive? This morning The Herald submits this query gravely and solemnly to its readers, of all classes, ranks, sexes and professions.

"We do not desire to be understood as deciding that the Louisville firemen did loot, as charged; they will be tried and until tried, they are entitled to the benefit of the doubt. We have taken no sides and do not as yet pass any judgment in relation to the miserable and deplorable controversy between the authorities of our two colleges about the coming football game.
But the very charge that looting is possible on the part of firemen of Louisville is humiliating; the fact of such a controversy between these two colleges is lamentable; and are these sporadic or symptomatic? Is it true, as is somewhat bitterly urged by an influential journal, that if a father will steal an election, the son may be expected to cheat at football? If a legislature will forge a journal, firemen may be expected to loot at a fire? If judges and sheriffs connive at, if not cause, assassination, why should not grave professors certify "ringers" to be bona fide students?"

A Kansas judge came near being ousted from office for playing a social game of poker. The next thing we know somebody will be kicking about Kentucky judges enjoying their little toddy.

President Roosevelt's message this year is to be much shorter than usual, but it may be relied on to will say all that is necessary and do it without wasting time or mincing words.

Louisville has a new name for "hoons." They are called "hoops" because they are always around the whiskey barrel.

There is no evidence that the wave of reform said to have swept over Frankfort has baptized any of the state officials.

NEW BOARDS ELECT

City Officers to be Chosen by Members Elect.

This Is the Decision Rendered By Solicitor Worten to Mayor Yeiser.

MUCH INTEREST FELT IN CASE

City Solicitor Worten has decided after making a thorough investigation that the new general council must elect the city officers to be elected by that board. There are a number of city officials whose terms of office expire in December, and it has been wondered whether the present board of aldermen and councilmen would elect, or the new board, which does not go into office until January 4.

The candidates for the various offices, whose names are legion, have been as badly puzzled as some of the city officials. They did not know to whom to go. Some of them can get what they are after should the present boards elect, while others would win under the new boards.

Mayor Yeiser was unable to himself decide the point, and yesterday called on Solicitor Worten and asked his opinion.

The solicitor stated that under the law the new boards elect, not the present board. This will probably settle the matter, although some of the members of the present boards who step out when the new boards come in may do all they can to have the present boards elect.

Solicitor Worten says in regard to ordinance bearing on the bond laws that all the ordinances necessary to pass have already been passed, and that the city has now only to go ahead and leave and sell the bonds.

HAVE KILLED NINE

Beardless Youths Caught By the Chicago Police.

Calmly Confess to Many Holdups
and Robberies in Windy City.

KILLED THROUGH "NECESSITY"

Chicago, Nov. 28—Chained wrist to wrist, their hair matted with dried blood, their clothing covered with dirt and dirt—two beardless boys, Peter Niedermeyer and Harvey Van Dine, sat
last night in the presence of Mayor Harrison and Chief of Police O'Neil, calmly confessing to their share in a three months' career of crime, which has included nine murders, the wounding of five other men and a long series of robberies. The two young men humble, neither of whom is over 21 years of age, together with their companion, Emil Doeskie, who is no older, were captured near Liverpool, Ind., yesterday after a fight in which they battled against policemen, railroad detectives, railroad laborers and farmers.
One man was killed, another fatally wounded, and all three of the young bandits were wounded but not seriously.

The dead:
T. J. SOVEA, brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad.

Wounded:
Joseph Driscoll, detective on the Chicago police force; shot through the abdomen and can not live but a short time.

Matthew Zimmer, detective on Chicago police force; shot in head and arm.

Niedermeyer was wounded in the hand by bird shot. Van Dine was similarly injured and sustained in addition a flesh wound in the left thigh.
Doeskie was shot in the right hip.
His wound is the most serious of any inflicted upon the three men, but was not sufficient to prevent him from traveling a long distance after receiving it.

The three men were wanted by the police for complicity in the murders at car barns of the Chicago City Railway company on August 30, when two men were killed, a third badly wounded and $2,250 stolen from the company.

Gustave Marx, who last Saturday night murdered Officer John Quinn, when the policeman endeavored to place him under arrest, confessed after his capture that he, in company with three men, had committed the crime at the car barns.

The hunt for Van Dine, Niedermeyer and Doeskie, has been hot ever since.
Although they knew that the entire police force was looking for them, the three men remained in the city until Wednesday morning.

A list of victims, killed and wounded, charged against the young desperadoes, is given below:

The killed:
OTTO BAUDER, murdered during saloon holdup on July 9.

ADOLPH JOHNSON, murdered in a saloon robbery on August 2.

JAMES E. JOHNSON, motorman, killed in robbery of Chicago City Railroad company's barns on August 30.

FRANCIS W. STEWART, shot during car barn robbery.

B. C. LAGROSA, murdered in his saloon on August 2.

POLICEMAN JOHN WUINN, killed November 21, while trying to arrest Marx.

T. J. SOVEA, brakeman, killed yesterday.

JOS. DRISCOLL, detective, now dying in a hospital.

The Wounded:
T. W. Lathrop, agent Chicago and Northwestern railroad, shot during attack on Clyburn Junction station on July 3.

Peter Goraki, shot during an attack by the four men in his saloon on July 20.

Henry Biehl, clerk, injured in robbery of car barns on August 20.

W. B. Edmund, clerk, shot and seriously injured during same robbery.

Matthew Zimmer, a detective, wounded in fight yesterday.

A GEORGIA JUDGE WAS ALARMINGLY AFFLICTED WITH CATARRH OF THE LUNGS. CURED BY PE-RU-NA.

JUDGE DURHAM, OF GREENSBORO, GEORGIA.

Catarrh of the Lungs
the First Stage of Consumption.

So All Medical Authorities Agree.

Judge Durham, a well-known local Judge of Greensboro, Ga., had an experience with Peruna well worth relating.
A report had become current among the Judge's friends that he was threatened with consumption. It was feared for a time that Georgia was to lose one of its most prominent and influential citizens.
It was also reported that the Judge had failed to get any relief from any of the medical aid at his command, that he had made use of the now famous remedy, Peruna, and made a prompt recovery. The affair created quite a sensation in medical circles especially, and the many friends of Judge Durham were not only exceedingly gratified at his recovery, but were enthusiastic in their praises of the remedy that had brought him relief.

The following written statement from the Judge himself set forth the facts:

Greensboro, Ga., March 3, 1900.

"Some time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and in my head. I tried many remedies, all of which gave me no relief. I concluded that my case was catarrh of the head and lungs, and seeing Peruna to highly recommended I began using it, experiencing the very best results from the first bottle.

SECOND DAY'S WORK

Many Other Teachers Have Arrived in Paducah.

A Fine Address Was Enjoyed Last Evening—Interesting Program Rendered.

ILLINOIS TEACHERS NOT COME

One of the finest addresses ever heard in Paducah, was that given at the High school building last night to the First District Educational association and a number of Paducah people, by Dr. Burris Jenkins, president of the Kentucky university at Lexington, Ky. The subject of the address was "The True End and Aim of Education."

Clear, forceful, epigrammatic, eloquent and magnetic, Dr. Jenkins charmed his audience from the beginning. The address was not only scholarly and instructive, but immensely pleasing, abounding in refined humor, and practical thought, as well as well rounded and polished sentences.

He treated education from a utilitarian standpoint, and gave as its true purpose, not the making of a man that knows things, but of a man that can do things. As not the making of simply a scholar, but of a well rounded man from a physical, mental and spiritual standpoint, whose highest aim and purpose in life is to work for the good of his fellow man.

The second day of the annual meeting of the First District Teachers' Educational association began this morning at 10 o'clock in the auditorium of the High school building and the attendance is very large, the seating capacity of the auditorium being taxed to its utmost.

There are many prominent educators here and eight counties are represented by superintendents. Among them are Prof. A. M. Ragsdale, McCracken; Charles Evans, Crittendon; T. J. Coats, Caldwell; A. D. Sniel, Ballard, and Zel Bennett, Livingston. This makes absent only five superintendents, a remarkable attendance for superintendents.

The actual enrollment of members this morning was 70 but more teachers are coming in and enrolling, and by the time the meeting has been brought to a close, it is thought there will be fully one hundred enrolled.

The program of the meeting has been carried out nearly in full, several small subjects having been omitted on account of the absence of the teachers who were to have participated.

The omissions yesterday were Prof. Wm. Leigh, Nannie Oatlett and Eugenia Parnam, on the subject Two Sorts of History Telling, the three being absent. Prof. W. H. Sugg and Miss Sadie Rankin, however, were present and read excellent papers.

Under the subject of "Has the Current Event Movement Caught Us Yet?" Miss Ada Brazleton and Mrs. Nellie Whayne read excellent papers while the other two teachers programmed, Prof. A. R. Boone and E. W. Howell, were absent.

"The Educational Value of a Story" was on yesterday's program but was held over until today. Those on this subject are: Miss Addie Boyd, Miss Dora Driffin, R. W. West, W. D. Dodds.

The program for today was carried out with the exception of an address on literature by Rector J. W. Sykes this morning at 11 o'clock, which was not on the program and the subject, "The Lancaster Memory Work Idea" under which four teachers are assigned. The only teacher present to read on this subject is Miss Francis Gray who had a most excellent paper. The program was as follows:

SATURDAY MORNING.

Why I Am a Teacher—C. A. Norval, discussion, Prof. Lewlyn.

The Teacher—Well Informed—W. G. Gray, Miss Lillie Irwin. Trained—Miss Carrie Moore, E. W. Roach. Cultured—Mrs. Herndon, D. E. Wilson.

The Illinois teachers did not come to Paducah yesterday. A telephone message was received yesterday from some of the managers of the proposed trip to Paducah, and it was stated that there were several colored teachers in the crowd. The Illinois association was informed in a delicate way as possible that the teachers here could make no arrangements to entertain the colored teachers, the trip was declared off, as the colored teachers could not be left behind.

THE CITY HOSPITAL

MRS. BIRCHETT WILL PROBABLY BE RE-ELECTED—ST. LOUIS MAN DEAD.

When the new councilmen and aldermen get into office among the other minor offices to be filled will be that of city hospital keeper, and the only applicant known at present is Mrs. Sarah Birchett, the present matron. Mrs. Birchett has kept the hospital in the best condition possible and the inmates are all well satisfied with the treatment received and the attention given them as patients. Mrs. Birchett will not doubt be re-elected.

Charles Freil, of St. Louis, who was brought here on November 10 and placed in the city hospital, died this afternoon and his sister in St. Louis has been telegraphed regarding his demise. Freil was knocked off the Cairo bridge and a rib broken. He fell into the river and soon after came to Paducah where he contracted pneumonia and was taken to the city hospital. Since that time he had been ill. Ella Bryan was taken to the city hospital last night very ill.

THE SURE WAY TO REAR A HEALTHY GIRL.

The relation of food to comfort and health impressed an Iowa teacher who says:

"After teaching school for several years I became a victim to insomnia and night after night it was 3 or 4 o'clock in the morning before I would fall asleep completely worn out. Of course I lost strength and brain power and became terribly nervous until I was on the verge of nervous prostration.

"About that time I read an article about Grape Nuts that convinced me that my trouble was due to indigestion, something I had never thought of before. I got two boxes of Grape Nuts and began to use them for breakfast and supper with good rich cream. Well, the change was something wonderful and my health came back in bounds.

"Grape Nuts took the place of non-nourishing food and I am now better in health, brain power and spirits; sleep well and work longer and harder and never feel nervous or worried. When I have finished my school session I still feel I have lots of reserve force and energy left and when I go to bed at night I get sound and refreshing sleep and get up early, happy as a lark.

"I have had numbers of my scholars try the food and I must tell you about one case. She was a puny nervous little girl and her mother told me she did not eat enough to keep a bird alive. All she wanted was candy and other trash. When I told her mother about Grape Nuts for she followed my advice and its effect upon this child, shown in the awakened energy of the body and mind was simply wonderful. Her school work became entirely satisfactory and she gained in bodily strength lost all her nervousness, and soon became a rosy chubby young miss." Names given by the Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

There's a reason. Look in each package for a copy of the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

GAVE UP DAUGHTER.

OLD DARKEY WAS THREATENED WITH A WARRANT.

Louis Smithers, colored, who yesterday complained to the police that his wife had been taken from him by her father, today succeeded in getting her back. Ote Estes, or Gates, colored, of Mooretown, took the girl from Smithers yesterday after he had returned from Brookport where they were married.

He said no man should have his daughter, and Smithers asked the police to help him get her. Today Smithers employed an attorney and a warrant was to have been taken out against the father but he was persuaded that the only wise course was to turn the girl over to her husband, so he took her to the city hall and she was given to her husband.

FOUND WATCH

YOUNG MAN DISCOVERS IT IN A HICKORY NUT TREE.

Mr. Will Coleman, of Wallace park section, recently found a watch hanging in a hickory nut tree. He was nuzzling with several friends in the Clark's river section and had climbed a tall tree when his hand came in contact with a chain. Looking up he saw suspended over a branch, the chain securely fastened, a watch. Evidently some person climbed the tree and his watch chain caught in the fork of a branch and he lost it. This is the first time such a peculiar find has been reported and the owner can secure the watch by calling on Mr. Coleman and giving a description of same.

VERY UNIQUE CASE

A Fruit Grower Works it Successfully for Years.

Claimed to be a Dealer in Merchandise and Got Much Goods.

SENTENCED TO ONE YEAR.

The Hancock case, which was tried in the federal court here, resulting in the conviction of the defendant for using the mails to defraud and a sentence of one year in the penitentiary was unique in this section, though it has been worked in the north for time out of mind, says the Owensboro Inquirer.

Hancock owns a fruit farm at Oesky, in Christian county. He was known to his neighbors as an honest man, so far as his dealings with them were concerned. They could not understand how he received so much freight and so many express packages, his wagon making almost daily trips to the depot and never coming back empty. The Hopkinsville Banks received hundreds of drafts on him for varying amounts, but not one of them was ever paid.

Hancock's plan was simple. He had handsome letter heads and tasty envelopes printed, representing himself as a dealer in general merchandise and farming implements. He would write to wholesale dealers, manufacturers and brokers all over the country and order every conceivable article of merchandise. In these letters was always the statement that there was no railway agent at Oesky and that it would be necessary to prepay the freight. If it came unpaid, he always refused the goods, thus making his victims furnish the goods free and pay the expense besides.

Hancock supplied himself with all of the clothing, dry goods, shoes, groceries and other things needed by his family, besides whisky, of which he drank a good deal himself. In addition to what he consumed he sold vast quantities to the people of the surrounding country at a much lower price than they could be obtained elsewhere.

A DANGEROUS MONTH.

This is the month of coughs, colds, and acute catarrh. Do you catch cold easily? Find yourself hoarse, with a tickling in your throat and an annoying cough at night? Then, you should always have handy a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. J. A. Anderson, 35 West Fifth street, Salt Lake City, writes: "We use Ballard's Horehound Syrup for coughs and colds. It gives immediate relief. We know it's the best remedy for these troubles. I write this to induce other people to try this pleasant and efficient remedy." 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

ELECTED OFFICERS

ONLY ONE CHANGE MADE IN COMMERCIAL CLUB.

The directors of the Paducah Commercial and Manufacturers' association held a meeting yesterday afternoon after banking hours at the American German National bank to elect officers for the Commercial club for the ensuing year.

Mr. L. S. DeBois was re-elected president, Mr. Charles Reed vice president in place of Mr. F. P. Toof, whose business prevents him from longer serving, Mr. R. B. Phillips was re-elected treasurer and Mr. George D. Dine was re-elected secretary.

At the request of Secretary Dine the salary of secretary was cut out and the secretary was authorized to manage the finances of the Paducah Canning factory in addition to his duties as secretary of the Commercial club. The Commercial club is now running along smoothly and there is not as much work to do as formerly, hence the secretary is permitted to devote a part of his time to other things.

CLEARANCE SALE OF SUITS AND WAISTS.

The month of crowds is almost here. We expect to do a larger December business than ever before in this store's history; we have been growing fast of late and this growth should show strongest during the next four weeks.

MARVELOUS GARMENT OPPORTUNITY.

Our sales of suits and waists have been the largest in our history. We want to make December sales greater and we believe we hold the keynote to that end—"PRICES" will be employed that no one can resist.

SUITS.

Here is all the style you could wish for and quality, too, yet the price is but little more than you would pay for the splendid fabrics from which the garments are made.
All our $16 and $20 suits including of Louis XIV corset coat and out a way coats are offered at $13.50.
All of our $25 and $30 suits made of handsome cloths and mixtures in the most stylish shapes and exceedingly well tailored are offered at $19.

WAISTS.

Judge from these prices how extremely anxious we are to reduce this stock at the earliest possible moment.
Ladies' waists made of good quality heavy white oxford, a waist for cold weather, a $1 value for 75c.
Ladies' waists made of white pique braided and trimmed with pearl buttons, a $1.50 value for $1.

BLANKETS AND COMFORTS.

You are thinking about warm bed covering now, and if you will turn your thoughts in our direction we will save you money.

10-4 Plaid woolen blankets $3
11-4 Plaid woolen blankets, both good and wide at $4.95.
Striped Kimona Cotton blankets at 98c.
Calico comforts for single beds 75c.
Calico comforts for double beds $1.
Extra wide calico comforts $1.25
Fine silklike comforts, extra wide, at $2.25.

CORSETS.

Once upon a time the corset was nothing more than a body to encase another body, rigid and severe, whereas now it is the keynote to the style of the figure. The form to be true to the fashion idea, must have a certain length of waist and slope of hip and spring at the back giving the figure the desired style of poise and carriage. In the RUST PROOF LINE will be found a full range of styles creating the desired figures.

A great many of WARNER'S RUST PROOF MODELS have the hose supporters attached securing the perfect expression of the prevailing modes as it cannot be secured in corsets without the hose supporters.

PRICES $1 to $5.00.

THE SKY PILOT

By RALPH CONNOR

Author of "The Man From Gungahny" "Gungahny School Days" and "Black Rock"

Copyright, 1909, by FLEMING H. REVELL COMPANY

"Haven't you heard? It's Gwen," he said, and the next minute or two he gave to Jingo, who was indulging in a series of unexpected plunges. When Jingo was brought down the Duke was master of himself and told his tale with careful self control.

Gwen, on her father's buckskin brown, had gone with the Duke to the big plain above the cut bank where Joe was herding the cattle. The day was hot, and a storm was in the air. They found Joe riding up and down, singing to keep the cattle quiet, but having a hard time to hold the bunch from breaking. While the Duke was riding around the far side of the bunch a cry from Gwen arrested his attention. Joe was in trouble. His horse, a half broken colt, had stumbled into a badger hole and had bolted, leaving Joe to the mercy of the cattle. At once they began to snuff suspiciously at this phenomenon, a man on foot, and to follow cautiously on his track. Joe kept his head and walked slowly out till all at once a young cow began to bawl and to paw the ground. In another minute one and then another of the cattle began to toss their heads and bunch and bellow till the whole herd of 200 were after Joe. Then Joe lost his head and ran. Immediately the whole herd broke into a thundering gallop with heads and tails aloft and horns rattling like the leading of a regiment of rifles.

"Two more minutes," said the Duke, "would have done for Joe, for I could never have reached him. But in spite of my most frantic warnings and signals, right into the face of that mad, bellowing, thundering mass of horns rode that little girl. Nerve! I have some myself, but I couldn't have done it. She swung her horse round Joe and called out with him, with the head bellowing at the tail of her bronco. I've seen some cavalry things in my day, but for sheer cool bravery nothing touches that."

"How did it end? Did they run them down?" I asked, with terror at such a result.

"No; they crowded her toward the cut bank, and she was edging them off and was almost past when they came to a place where the bank bit in, and her iron mouthed brute wouldn't swerve, but went pounding on, broke through, plunged. She couldn't spring free because of Joe and pitched headlong over the bank, while the cattle went thundering past. I think myself old Jingo and slid down somehow into the mud thirty feet below. Here was Joe safe enough, but the bronco lay with a broken leg and half under him was Gwen. She hardly knew she was hurt, but waved her hand to me and cried out: 'Wasn't that a race? I couldn't swing this hard headed brute. Get me out!' But even as she spoke the light faded from her eyes, she stretched out her hands to me, saying faintly, 'Oh, Duke!' and lay back white and still. We put a bullet into the buckskin's head and carried her home in our jackets, and there she lies without a sound from her poor, white lips."

The Duke was badly cut up. I had never seen him show any sign of grief before, but as he finished the story he stood ghastly and shaking. He read my surprise in my face and said:

"Look here, old chap, don't think me quite a fool. You can't know what that little girl has done for me these years. Her trust in me—it is extraordinary how utterly she trusts me—somehow held me up to my best and back from perdition. It is the one bright spot in my life in this blessed country. Every one else thinks me a pleasant or unpleasant kind of fiend."

I protested rather faintly.

"Oh, don't worry your conscience," he answered with a slight return of his

The whole herd were after Joe, old snail. "A fuller knowledge would only justify the opinion." Then, after a pause he added: "But if Gwen goes I must pull out. I couldn't stand it." As we rode up the doctor came out. "Well, what do you think?" asked the Duke.

"Can't say yet," replied the old doctor, guff with long army practice. "Bad enough. Good night."

MRS. JON'S DEAD

AN AGED AND RESPECTED LADY GOES TO HER REWARD.

Mrs. M. E. Jones died yesterday afternoon late at her home at Third and Madison streets from old age, after a long illness. Death was not unexpected. Mrs. Jones was one of Paducah's oldest inhabitants and most respected Christian ladies. She was a native of Wales, where she was born 76 years ago, coming to America when six years old. She lived first at Pittsburg, Pa., and married and came to Paducah in 1858.

Her husband was first engineer at the old rolling mills, which stood where the Langstaff mill now stands, and was later manager of the Paducah Gas company for many years. He subsequently went into the hardware business, and died about fifteen years ago.

Out of twelve children born to Mr. and Mrs. Jones, only two survive, Mr. Frank Jones, the hardware man, and Miss Fannie Jones. The deceased leaves two sisters in Pittsburg. She was a life-long member of the First Presbyterian church.

There is still a scarcity of coal in river circles but the coal dealers promise that today coal will arrive and the steamboat men will have no cause to further complain.

AFTER DOWIE.

THE SO CALLED ELIJAH A GOOD CREDIT DODGER.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Four years ago John Alexander Dowie was getting options on his Zion property. Now he is staving off importunate creditors who are swarming there. The latest list of debts foots up $4,800, including the Schoellkopf, Hartford & Hanna company, $300; Seybold Machine company, of Ohio, $1,500; H. J. Heinz & company, $500; Habich, Braun & company, $1,000; Carter & Holmes, $250; Borden's Condensed Milk company, $350; Library Bureau, $500; Rosenwald & Weil, $500.

There are rumors that at least one holder of a mortgage on Zion city land is preparing to foreclose. This creditor, said to reside in Chicago, has a $15,000 claim on land in the heart of Zion city, including Dowie's residence, the bank, general stores, college, tabernacle, and other buildings. A year ago Dowie failed to pay the installments due many land owners, securing a year's extension, which he may not obtain now. Much of the land in Zion city was mortgaged by Dowie, and owners of houses there have leases only.

It now develops that Dowie transferred the title of his residence to his wife just prior to her departure for Europe.

Followers of Dowie in Waukegan have received orders to move to Zion city, and some are preparing to do so.

THE BOND SUIT

SOLICITOR WORTEN HAS FILED IT IN CIRCUIT COURT.

The ex parte petition asking the courts to construe the $900,000 in city bonds authorized at the recent election by a vote of the people, was filed yesterday afternoon by Solicitor Worten. There is neither plaintiff or defendant, and the object of the suit is to have the courts pass on the bonds and by declaring them valid and legal in every respect, thus enhance their value.

The questions the court is asked to decide are: If one or more questions of this nature may be voted on at the same election; if the bond vote should have been taken on the regular ballot on which names of candidates, etc., appeared or a separate ballot; if the fact that only about one-half of those voting voted on the bond proposition matters; the last is whether or not the ordinances authorizing the bond issue were properly passed.

Rescued from Death.

220 Massachusetts Avenue, Indianapolis, Ind., April 6, 1909.

A year ago I suffered with flooding spells which threatened to end my life. I was given up by several doctors when my nurse called to your Wine of Cardui. I felt that it was only a waste of time and money to try it but to please my aunt I did so. It was really wonderful how soon I was benefited and felt myself growing better and stronger. I found the medicine pleasant to take and each month the flow was less until in seven months I was perfectly natural and suffered no pain.

You cannot wonder that I am enthusiastic in the praise of your medicine when you know all that it has done for me.

Anabelle Allen

SECRETARY, COMMODITY CLUB.

WINE of CARDUI

Mrs. Allen made a conservative statement when she wrote that flooding spells threatened to end her life. Every woman should know that flooding if not checked is sure death. It is nothing more nor less than the escaping of the life blood from the body—bleeding to death. Consumption is not so terrible as this awful calamity when it has gotten beyond control.

When the doctors had given up Mrs. Allen and when she had no hope, Wine of Cardui checked the terrible waste and saved her life. Besides saving her life Wine of Cardui brought her back to perfect health.

Could there be a more complete and conclusive demonstration than this of what Wine of Cardui can do? If Wine of Cardui cured those terrible chronic spells for Mrs. Allen, would it not do the same for you? Menstrual irregularities, bearing down pains, ovarian troubles, suppression, nervousness and headaches and backaches are only less dangerous symptoms of female weakness and Wine of Cardui cures them all—destroys the last trace and brings perfect health.

You need not have the greatest faith in Wine of Cardui. Mrs. Allen didn't. Just give it a trial and let Wine of Cardui cure you just as it did Mrs. Allen. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.

HAYES' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron, we think, is a preparation the medical profession have long been wanting. The formula is different from any other preparation of like character on the market. It contains full 40 per cent of Pure Cod Liver Oil by volume, is emulsified with glycerinated yolk of egg—and egg emulsions have long been recognized as far superior to any other class.

Emulso-Hypo contains no other flavoring than a fine quality of brandy, combined with Hypophosphites of Potash, Lime and Soda, Iron, Quinine, Strychnine and Manganese, with pure Beechwood Creosote and Syrup of Iodide of Iron.

We cannot see how any better preparation of the kind could possibly be made Emulso-Hypo positively contains no drugs that would injure the digestive organs, such as gum arabic or Irish moss.

We have already printed testimonials from patients. Later we will publish some from physicians who recognize its value

PRECINCT CONVENTION

THEY ARE HELD ALL OVER THE DISTRICT THIS AFTERNOON.

Precinct conventions were held all over this senatorial district this afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of naming and instructing delegates to the convention which meets at Wickliffe Dec. 2 to nominate a Democratic candidate for state Senator to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Senator Melb. Ferguson, who is a railroad commissioner-elect.

It will probably be impossible to determine anything about the result by today's conventions. It is said by interested politicians that it will take the final convention at Wickliffe to decide, as there may be a little wire working in the meantime which may change things.

In the city every precinct went for Attorney J. Wheeler Campbell except Glaubers, which went for Mr. Harry G. Tandy, according to the reports sent in to headquarters this afternoon. It cannot yet be learned how the county went or how other counties went.
